

Parent Manifesto

In accordance to what we see in scripture, we believe that you, the parent, are the primary influence in your child's life. The church exists to support, equip, and supplement parents as they carry out their God given mission with their families. We believe that each parent should be striving to faithfully model what it means to Know Jesus, Grow in the Home, Be the Church, and Make impact by...

Knowing Jesus

Modeling personally time in the bible, prayer, and worship and living a fruit filled life.

Growing in the Home

Model what it looks like to love and lead your family, steward your finances, and fill your home with love.

Be the Church

Model what it looks like to love, serve, give, and be present in the community of believers.

Make Impact

Model what it looks like to live on mission in this world everywhere that we go!
